Executive Summary

Business Overview

Introducing "Food Bonanza," a culinary delight that aims to transform the gastronomic experience during the Sports Heats and Sports Day at PISJ-ES. Going beyond the conventional food stall concept, Food Bonanza becomes an integral part of this exciting sports event, elevating the overall ambiance with a diverse range of delectable flavors.

Mission and Vision

Food Bonanza, conceptualized by Commerce students, is not merely a food venture but a dynamic platform for students to navigate real-life scenarios, refine customer interaction skills, and nurture critical thinking abilities. Our mission is to offer a vibrant culinary palette, creating a welcoming space with top-notch food and services, all at an affordable price.

Looking ahead, our vision is to establish Food Bonanza as a perennial highlight of the annual Sports Heats and Sports Day, setting new benchmarks for culinary experiences within the school community.

Founding Team and Expertise

The Food Bonanza team comprises dedicated A-Level students who share a passion for culinary excellence, event management, and customer service. Their collective expertise forms a synergy that transcends the mere act of serving food; it's about crafting an unforgettable experience for all participants.

Funding Request

To ensure the successful launch and execution of Food Bonanza during the Sports Heats and Sports Day, we seek a funding support of 15,000 SR. This financial backing will cover expenses related to high-quality ingredients, stall setup, and other operational requirements, ensuring a seamless and memorable experience for all attendees.

Financial Projections

Our conservative projections anticipate a robust return on investment, with a significant portion of the funding being recovered through sales during the three-day event. The financial forecast reflects not only our commitment to delivering a top-tier culinary experience but also our strategic approach to financial sustainability.

Long Term Plan

Our long-term plan is straightforward yet ambitious – to establish Food Bonanza as a consistent and enduring highlight of future Sports Heats and Sports Day events. We aim to continually innovate, adapting to evolving tastes and preferences while upholding core values of quality, affordability, and an enriching experience for all.

Food Bonanza transcends the traditional food stall concept; it embodies passion, creativity, and a commitment to excellence. Through this initiative, we aspire to make a lasting impact on the PISJ-ES community, injecting an extra layer of excitement into the annual Sports Heats and Sports Day and creating memories that linger long after the event concludes.

Industry Overview

The culinary landscape at PISJ-ES during the Sports Heats & Sports Day is vibrant, offering a diverse range of culinary experiences. Food stalls have become focal points, enhancing the overall event experience with quality offerings.

Trends in the Food and Event Industry:

- Enhanced Event Experience: Food stalls play a pivotal role, contributing to the overall event experience.
- Quality Focus: The demand for diverse and high-quality food emphasizes Food Bonanza's need to stand out with unique and superior products.

Target Market:

- Demographics: Students, faculty, parents, and community members attending the Sports Heats & Sports Day.
- Preferences: Catering to a diverse audience with varied tastes through a thoughtfully curated menu.
- Geographic Focus: Primary focus on PISJ-ES during the Sports Heats & Sports Day.

SWOT Analysis

Strengths:

1. Reasonable Prices with Appropriate Profit Margins:
   Food Bonanza maintains reasonable prices, ensuring affordability while sustaining healthy profit margins.
2. Strong Cash Flow Statements:
   A robust financial structure with strong cash flow statements contributes to the stability and success of Food Bonanza.
3. Excellent Customer Service:
   A commitment to excellent customer service enhances the overall experience for attendees.

Weaknesses:

1. Exact Target Market Determination:
   Precise identification of the target market can be a challenge; efforts will be made to refine and narrow down the exact audience.
2. Risks Involved with Inventory:
   Potential risks associated with inventory management will be addressed through careful planning and monitoring.
3. Operating Costs Involved:
   Managing and optimizing operating costs will be a focus area to maintain profitability.

Opportunities:

1. Potential for Expansion Through Advertising:
   Leveraging online advertising for the event presents an opportunity for expansion and increased attendance.
2. Selling Items at Stalls:
   The possibility of selling items at stalls opens additional revenue streams and enhances the reach of Food Bonanza.
3. Providing Personalized Service:
   Offering personalized services based on consumer preferences creates opportunities for a unique and tailored experience.
4. Access to Different Target Markets:
   The diverse menu allows access to different target markets, catering to a wide range of tastes and preferences.

Threats:

1. Possible Delays from Suppliers:
   Potential delays from suppliers could impact the availability of ingredients; contingency plans will be in place.
2. Harsh Weather Conditions:
   Considering the possibility of harsh weather conditions, preparations will be made to mitigate any adverse effects on the event.

Marketing Objectives:

1. Create Customer Awareness:
   Generate interest and awareness among customers by highlighting the unique and diverse product portfolio of Food Bonanza.
2. Highlight Product Benefits:
   Clearly communicate the superior quality and distinctiveness of Food Bonanza's offerings compared to competitors.
3. Visually Appealing Food Stall:
   Design and develop an attractive food stall that not only captivates customers visually but also facilitates quick and efficient food services.

Pricing Strategy

Adopt a competitive pricing strategy based on cost-plus pricing. This approach ensures that prices cover production costs while remaining attractive to the target market. Regularly assess market conditions to make necessary adjustments and stay competitive.

Promotion:

1. Word-of-mouth and In-Store Marketing:
   - Leverage the school's high foot traffic by encouraging word-of-mouth promotion and implementing in-store marketing strategies, including brochures, wall posters, design concepts, and standing signage.
2. Local Store Marketing:
   - Implement low-budget local store marketing plans to garner community support and enhance awareness within the local area.
   - Distribution of Brochures to Parents: As part of our local store marketing strategy, we will ensure direct engagement with parents by distributing informative brochures on the day of the Food Bonanza. These brochures will contain details about the menu, special offerings, and the overall experience we aim to deliver. By placing these materials directly in the hands of parents, we maximize our reach and create a tangible connection with our target audience. This approach not only promotes the event but also serves as a convenient reference for parents planning to attend the Food Bonanza.
3. Strategic Use of social media:
   - Use local media effectively to supplement other marketing efforts, creating targeted awareness among the broader community.

- Utilizing the School's Instagram Page: In line with our strategic use of social media, we will leverage the school's Instagram page as a powerful platform for promotional activities. Menu posters will be posted on the school's official Instagram account. This approach aims to capture the attention of students, faculty, parents, and the broader community, creating a buzz around the Food Bonanza. The visual appeal of our diverse menu and exciting offerings will be displayed through captivating posts, ensuring maximum exposure and generating interest among potential attendees.

Market Segmentation

The menu is strategically designed to target both parents and students, ensuring inclusivity and catering to diverse preferences.

This comprehensive marketing plan positions Food Bonanza strategically to create a memorable and successful event during the Sports Heats & Sports Day, focusing on engaging both parents and students. It aims to contribute to the overall success of Food Bonanza at this exciting sports event, fostering a sense of community and enjoyment for all attendees.

Human Resources

The Human Resources Department stands at the heart of fostering a conducive and harmonious environment for all involved volunteers. Our responsibilities include the careful management of personnel, training, volunteer engagement, and the assurance of a hygienic and organized event space. Specifically, the HR Department has structured its duties as follows:

Organizational Structure:

The Food Bonanza organizational structure depicts a typical hierarchical structure:

This hierarchical structure is meant to provide a clearer understanding of employee roles and responsibilities alongside accountability for actions or decisions at different management levels. Furthermore, this structure will allow close supervision of employees through a narrow span of managerial control and a culture of loyalty towards teams, departments and the organization as a whole.

Human Resources Department's Role:

- Shift Organization:
  - Implementing a shift system with distinct volunteer groups for optimized operational efficiency.
- Volunteer Task Assignment:
  - Providing comprehensive on-the-job training to volunteers across all departments.

- Ensuring each volunteer is adept in customer interactions, contributing to the event's success.
    - Hygiene and Conflict Resolution:
- Supervising volunteer working conditions to maintain cleanliness and organization.
    - Resolving conflicts between customers, ensuring a positive experience for all attendees.
    - Overseeing adherence to hygiene standards (e.g., gloves, hairnets) for volunteers and stall areas.
- Collaboration and Motivation:
    - Collaborating closely with other departments to facilitate a cohesive and coordinated effort.
    - Ensuring high volunteer presence and motivation, crucial for the event's success.

Additional Components:

- Training Initiatives:
    - Provide training sessions for the Operations Department on stall handling, customer service, and hygiene practices.
- Participation Tracking:
    - Implement a system to accurately track and record volunteer participation hours, ensuring correct credit hours are awarded.

Communication Plan:

1. WhatsApp Groups:
    - Create separate WhatsApp groups for each department (HR, Marketing, Finance, Operations, Inventory Management).
    - Include heads and key members in these groups for direct communication.
    - Utilize WhatsApp for quick updates, urgent announcements, and immediate problem-solving.
2. Head Meetings:
    - Conduct regular meetings among department heads.
    - Schedule weekly briefings for the heads to discuss progress, challenges, and coordinate efforts.
    - Encourage open communication and idea sharing during these meetings.

Finance

The finance department plays a pivotal role in ensuring the success of the Food Bonanza by focusing on the following objectives:

1. Budget Management:
    - Develop and manage a detailed budget for the Food Bonanza, including income projections and expense allocations for food, decorations, marketing, and other necessary resources.
2. Financial Planning:
    - Strategize to ensure that the event generates sufficient revenue to cover expenses while aiming for a surplus that can be directed towards school programs or future events.
3. Ticket Sales and Pricing:
    - Set competitive yet profitable ticket prices, considering factors such as food quality, entertainment, and target audience's affordability.
4. Expense Control:
    - Monitor expenses closely during the event to stay within budget constraints without compromising the quality of the event.
5. Financial Reporting:
    - Provide financial reports to the school administration after the event to track income, expenses, and profitability. Furthermore, analyze financial performance after the Bonanza to assess the success, identify areas for improvement, and gather insights for future events.
6. Cash Flow Management:
    - Ensure smooth cash flow by managing ticket sales, handling on-site transactions, and overseeing payment processing.

Pricing

Our pricing strategy is based on a competitive yet profitable approach. We aim to cover production costs while remaining attractive to our target audience. Regular assessments of market conditions will be conducted to make necessary adjustments and stay competitive.

Loan Proposal:

The finance department proposes to get a loan to support the financing of the upcoming annual Sports Heats & Sports Day 2023-2024. This loan will be instrumental in ensuring the event's success by covering initial expenses and facilitating a memorable experience for attendees while aiming for financial sustainability.

Loan Request Details:

1. Loan Amount:
   The finance department requests a loan of 15,000 SAR only to cover initial expenses related to catering services, marketing, and logistical arrangements.
2. Risk Mitigation:
   To mitigate risks, the finance department has formulated detailed financial projections based on past event data, potential sponsorships, ticket sales forecasts, and cost optimizations. Contingency plans are in place to address unforeseen circumstances that might affect event revenue.

3. Benefits and Impact:
   The Food Bonanza contributes significantly to the school's reputation and community relations. It serves as a platform for showcasing student talents, fostering partnerships with local businesses, and generating funds for school programs.

Loan Utilization:

The loan will be utilized for the following purposes:

- Contracting reputable catering services.
- Marketing and promotional materials.
- Operational logistics expenses.

Financial Accountability:

The finance department commits to maintaining meticulous records of all expenditures and revenues associated with the event. Post-event financial reports will be promptly delivered to the school administration for transparency and accountability.

The Food Bonanza is a cornerstone event at PISJ-ES, and its success is crucial for both financial support to school programs and community engagement. The finance department firmly believes that the proposed loan will ensure a successful event while adhering to responsible financial management practices. We respectfully request approval for the loan to guarantee the seamless execution of this vital event.

Operations

The Operations Department plays a pivotal role in ensuring the seamless execution of Food Bonanza 2023. Our primary objective is to orchestrate a well-coordinated, efficient, and customer-centric operation that not only meets but exceeds the expectations of our diverse audience. We aim to provide a delightful culinary experience while maintaining the highest standards of quality, hygiene, and service.

Food Procurement Process

Efficiency is paramount in our food procurement process to ensure a seamless customer experience. We prioritize streamlined communication with a select number of vendors to enhance efficiency. We have minimized reliance on homemade items to maintain flexibility, allowing quick adjustments in the event of adverse weather conditions.

Inventory Management

- Inventory Backup: We maintain a comprehensive backup inventory of all menu items to address any unforeseen shortages or unexpected demand spikes.
- Communication with Inventory Management Head: Regular communication with the Inventory Management Head ensures prompt reordering when the stock reaches the buffer level. This proactive approach minimizes disruptions in the supply chain.

Staffing Requirements

- Shift Organization: With guidance from the HR department, we have implemented a shift system to optimize operational efficiency. Each shift has distinct volunteer groups assigned, ensuring a smooth transition.
- Volunteer Task Assignment: Comprehensive on-the-job training is provided to all volunteers across departments. This ensures that each volunteer is well-versed in customer interactions, contributing to the overall success of the event.

Operating Systems

- Hygiene Standards: Every server will adhere to stringent hygiene standards, wearing bouffant caps and gloves. Each stall will be equipped with sanitizers, tissue boxes, and other necessary hygiene supplies to maintain a clean and safe environment.
- Quick Service: Our commitment is to ensure quick service without compromising on quality. The efficient operating systems are designed to handle high customer traffic while delivering quality food promptly.

Quality Assurance

- Best Quality Items: We pledge to showcase only the best quality items, ensuring that they are served hot and fresh throughout the day. Scrumptious and delightful, our offerings will meet the highest standards.
- Customer Feedback: Continuous feedback from customers will be actively sought to identify areas for improvement. We are dedicated to enhancing our menu and services based on valuable customer insights.

Business Operating Time

Operating Hours: Food Bonanza 2023 will cater to customers from 7:30 am to 3:30 pm, providing a delightful and satisfying culinary experience during the specified hours.

Inventory Management

Efficient inventory management is crucial for the success of Food Bonanza 2023. Our objective is to maintain optimal stock levels, ensuring a seamless flow of inventory to meet customer demand while minimizing excess or shortage. By implementing effective inventory management practices, we aim to optimize costs, improve efficiency, and enhance overall customer satisfaction.

Our Plan

We will have two teams dedicated to inventory management. The first team will closely monitor the current inventory, providing updates to the second team for timely replenishment. The second team will be responsible for tracking incoming inventory, ensuring accurate records, and reporting updates to the heads.

The Role of the Heads:

- Cost Management: Ensure the lowest possible costs by selecting vendors wisely and negotiating favorable terms.
- Order Placement: Place all orders efficiently to avoid any delays or customer dissatisfaction.
- Team Management: Efficiently manage student teams, ensuring they meet all demands and operate smoothly.
- Quantity Assessment: Accurately assess the quantity of food needed to prevent shortages or excess inventory.

Our Main Focus:

- Ordering and Purchasing: Determine optimal order quantities and timing based on demand forecasts.
- Receiving and Storing: Receive, inspect, and organize goods. Maintain proper records and receipts for transparency.
- Tracking and Monitoring: Assign teams to continuously monitor inventory levels, providing immediate updates to the heads.
- Demand Forecasting: Predict future demand to prevent stockouts or overstock situations.
- Cost Optimization: Secure discounts and spend wisely to minimize costs.
- Supplier Relationships: Collaborate with suppliers to improve lead times, negotiate better terms, and ensure a reliable supply chain.

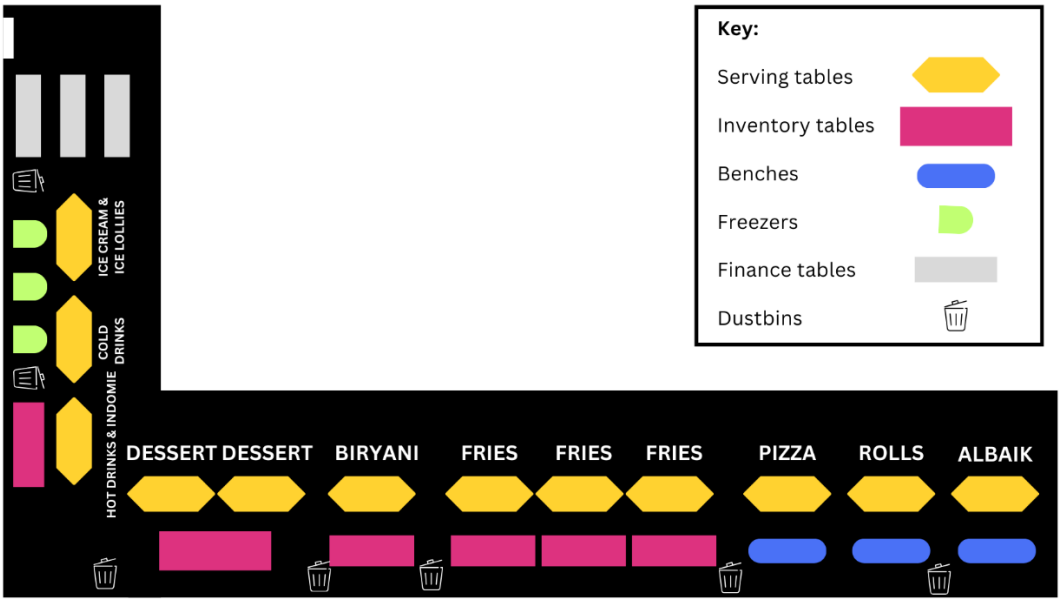

Contingency plan

To identify potential risks and develop effective strategies to ensure business continuity, minimize disruptions, and safeguard against unforeseen challenges.

1. Risk Identification and Assessment:
    - Conduct regular risk assessments to identify potential threats to the business.
    - Categorize risks into operational, financial, strategic, and external factors.
    - Prioritize risks based on severity and likelihood of occurrence.
2. Operational Contingencies:
    - Problem: Equipment failure or technical issues.
        - Solution: Maintain regular equipment maintenance schedules. Keep backup equipment on-site.
    - Problem: Key personnel absenteeism.
        - Solution: Cross-train employees for essential roles. Establish a backup workforce.
    - Problem: Supply chain disruptions.
        - Solution: Diversify suppliers. Keep emergency stock to address shortages.
3. Financial Contingencies:
    - Problem: Revenue loss or economic downturn.
        - Solution: Establish a financial reserve. Explore lines of credit and secure partnerships.
    - Problem: Increased operational costs.
        - Solution: Regularly review and optimize operational expenses. Negotiate favorable terms with suppliers.
4. Strategic Contingencies:
    - Problem: Shift in market trends.
        - Solution: Stay updated on industry trends. Diversify product/service offerings.
    - Problem: Competitive challenges.
        - Solution: Regularly assess and adjust marketing strategies. Enhance unique value propositions.

Event Layout and Requirements

The layout and organization of the Food Bonanza 2023 are strategically designed to ensure a smooth flow of operations, maintain cleanliness, and enhance the overall experience for attendees.

Event Layout

To achieve our objectives, the event layout will be structured as follows:

1. Stall Arrangement:
    - All stalls will be spaced out to prevent crowding and ensure a disciplined flow of attendees.
    - Garbage cans will be strategically placed between stalls to maintain cleanliness and encourage responsible disposal of trash.
2. Cold Storage Requirements:
    - Given the inclusion of cold items in our menu, a minimum of two freezers will be positioned strategically to preserve freshness and quality.
3. Organization Stations:
    - Separate serving and inventory tables will be designated for each stall, promoting neatness and efficient organization
4. Finance Table Placement:
    - The finance table, serving as the cashier station, will be prominently placed at the front for easy access and smooth transactions.

5. Hot Water Cooler Kettle:
    - A hot water cooler kettle will be provided to facilitate the preparation of tea, coffee, and instant noodles.

Requests for Access to Certain Components

Objective: To avoid the hindrances experienced in Food Bonanza 2022, we request access to specific components crucial for the smooth operation of Food Bonanza 2023.

Access Requests:

1. Refrigerator Access:
    - Request: We kindly request access to the school's refrigerator to store Frozen items (Ice creams and Ice lollies) an hour/two before the event starts. Ensuring its proper operation is crucial for maintaining our menu.
2. Extension Cables and Power Plugs:
    - Request: To prevent any dangerous incidents and ensure a safe operating environment, we request access to extension cables and high-power-bearing plugs for our stalls.
3. Canteen Access for Storage:
    - Request: We seek access to the school canteen to store purchased items securely. This will assist in maintaining the quality of our supplies and preventing any unauthorized access.
4. Table Arrangements:
    - Request: Requesting the arrangement of tables for our stalls. These tables are essential for students to place their appliances, display selling items, and ensure an organized and appealing presentation.
5. Additional Requirements:
    - Hot Electric Kettle: Access a hot electric kettle for preparing tea, coffee, and instant noodles.
    - Garbage Bins: Adequate garbage bins for responsible waste disposal.
    - Standing Fans: To ensure a comfortable environment for volunteers and attendees.

The carefully planned layout and adherence to requirements aim to create an organized, disciplined, and enjoyable environment for all participants, ensuring the success of Food Bonanza 2023.
